WASHINGTON, MONDAY, NOVEMBER 2, 2009

No. 161

Senate

The Senate met at 2 p.m. and was called to order by the Honorable MARK WARNER, a Senator from the Commonwealth of Virginia.

PRAYER

The Chaplain, Dr. Barry C. Black, offered the following prayer:

Let us pray.

Our God, we are thankful that You have not only known us but You have made Yourself known to us. It is amazing that You know us and still love us.

May our lawmakers come to You with the confidence borne of the knowledge that comes from being loved by You. As they seek to be Your ambassadors to our Nation and world, help them to acknowledge that without You they can accomplish nothing that will endure. May they remember to use our liberties and privileges, bought with so crimson a cost, to promote the common good of humanity.

Lord, we end this prayer by asking You to bless our military men and women in harm's way and their loved ones.

We pray this prayer in Your powerful Name. Amen.

PLEDGE OF ALLEGIANCE

The Honorable MARK WARNER led the Pledge of Allegiance, as follows:

I pledge allegiance to the Flag of the United States of America, and to the Republic for which it stands, one nation under God, indivisible, with liberty and justice for all.

HEALTH CARE REFORM

Mr. REID. Mr. President, our job as legislators is to write and pass a bill that will make it easier for every American family to afford to live a healthy life. Democratic Members have worked tirelessly over the past weeks, months, and even years to fulfill this tremendous responsibility. We have listened to the vast majority of Americans who demand that we stop health insurance companies from taking advantage of each of us. We have listened to the vast majority of Americans who know that a public option for health insurance is the best way to keep competition up, keep costs down, and keep insurance companies honest. We continue to listen to Senators as diverse ideologically as they are diverse geographically as we craft a final bill.

Today, we are closer than ever before to making sure every American can access quality, affordable health care—and making sure they have the choice of whether they get that care through their private insurer or a public one.

We are closer than ever, but we are not there quite yet. As we head for the finish line, one of the most important parts of this process is transparency.

That is exactly why the two Senate committees that drafted the foundations of this bill—the HELP and Finance Committees—conducted lengthy public meetings. At these meetings, the American people could see that the committees considered and approved numerous amendments and proposals by both Democrats and Republicans. For example, you could go on the HELP Committee's Web site and watch them adopt 160 Republican amendments into this bill. It is in the name of transparency that the committees' legislation has been fully available on the Internet for many weeks now. The HELP Committee's bill has been on its Web site since June 9, and the Finance Committee's bill has been on its Web site since September 16.

It is important to understand where we are in this process. Right now, we are merging those two bills into one bill. That work is ongoing, and many different options are being weighed. The CBO is analyzing those options, and based on their analysis we will decide what to put into a bill. Those who demand to see the bill this minute forget that a final bill doesn't yet exist. If it did, we would bring it to the floor. All should remember that as soon as the CBO results are in and as soon as important decisions are made based on those results, we have pledged to make the final bill available to the full Senate and the American people. The final bill will be public as soon as it is written. I will repeat that so there is no confusion. The final bill will be made public as soon as it is written.

Only one final decision has been made so far. We are going to give people the power of deciding whether they want to get their health insurance from somewhere other than the reckless private companies that are responsible for the mess we are in, and we are going to give the States the power of deciding whether that choice is best for its citizens.

So that is where we stand. It is important to get these facts on the
